

HOLY FAMILY ACADEMY

TEACHING FELLOWS PROGRAM

Graduates, are you interested in earning a Masters Degree in Secondary Education TUITION FREE?
Is your undergraduate degree in English, math, science, instructional technology, or psychology?

Duquesne University and Holy Family Academy have partnered to offer a Masters Degree in Secondary Education that considers the whole person -- inclusive of social, emotional, and intellectual development.

Program Features:

- Meaningful work
- Connecting your passion to your profession
- Live an integrated life
- Build vital skills in a hands - on environment that is project based and progressive
- Learn new skills to become an educator focused on excellence.
- Hone your discipline with responsibility and reasoning
- Spiritual immersion
- Serve the common good
- An ecumenical atmosphere open to diversity
- Live in community with others and experience faith sharing in the tradition of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth

Basic Requirements:

- 3.0 average during undergraduate Program
- Make an application to Duquesne University and meet admissions requirements
- Commit to a two-year long program
- Interview with leadership at Holy Family Academy

Express interest in this newly formulating program by contacting Lynn Guerra at:
Guerra.Lynn@hfi-pgh.org or 412-766-9020 x1304

The program is a collaboration between Duquesne University and Holy Family Service Corps.
Education immersion experience occurs at Holy Family Academy.